

Academic Activities:

TSWRDC(W), Mancherial has many academic activities that refer to any intellectual or scholarly pursuit undertaken within an educational or research setting. These activities typically involve the exploration, creation, dissemination, and application of knowledge in various fields of study. Academic activities can encompass a wide range of tasks and endeavors. 14 Departments of languages, Arts, and Science engage themselves in various academic activities that ensure the academic growth and excellence of faculty and students.

Student Seminars:

Student Seminar on Peacock Wisemen Theory by the Department of Economics department

Student Seminar on Market Structure on the Occasion of Teachers Day Celebrations-Self-Governance Day

A seminar is conducted on conditional statements in C programming from the Computer Science department

Student Seminar on "The Tame bird was in a cage" from the Department of English

Student Seminar on Microbial Interactions in Soil from Department of Microbiology

Student Seminar on Ultrastructure of Plant Cell wall from the Department of Microbiology

Student Seminar on Antibiotic topic from the Department of Zoology

QUIZ:

Quiz Conduction by the Economics department

Conduction of Quiz by computer Department

FIELD TRIP:

Field trip by the English Department to Karimnagar Elagandal Fort, Deer Park, and Manair Dam

Botanical tour to visit Prof. Jayashankar Agriculture University, Agriculture Research Station, Karimnagar by Botany Department

Field trip by Department of Economics Kaleshwaram Medigadda Project

Field trip by Department of Telugu to Elagandala khila

Normal

Student presentation and activities on the occasion of National Science Day by the Department of Microbiology

Millets Day Celebrations on account of International Millets Day by the Department of Botany.

Awareness program on cervical cancer on the occasion of National Science Day by the Department of Zoology

Gene Health Connect: Mobile Science Exhibition by Life Sciences departments

